JACKSONVILLE, ILLINOIS, TUESDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 1, 1904.

A GENERAL ENGAGEMENT

MAY BE BROUGHT ON IN SHORT TIME

Contending Armies in Manchuria Within Close Touch—Japs Receive Reinforcements—Assaults on Port Arthur.

According to Russian reports Oyama's army has been reinforced about 60,000 men from Port Arthur and Japan. Earlier reports have indicated that Kuropatkin has received nearly equal accessions. The contending armies are within close touch and any output, brush or reconnaissance may bring on a general engagement. There is much commencing for positions on both sides, BoBulloff (Lone Tree) Hill being a marked storm center.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 1.—Everything indicates both Japanese and Russian armies south of Mukden are ready for resumption of hostilities. If indeed fighting has not already begun, it is believed the Japanese force has been very largely augmented both from Port Arthur and Japan, from whence it is understood every available man is being drafted. It seems assured the Japanese will be able to meet Kuropatkin on almost, if not quite, an equal numerical footing. The fact they are again threatening a double flanking movement indicates Oyama's confidence in sufficiency of force at his disposal. It is believed here the second battle on the Shakhe river will be as much bigger and more serious than the first, as the first was more serious than the battle of Liao-yang.

Dispatches indicate resumption of fighting on both extremities of the Russian front. The night of October 30 the Japanese attacked Russian entrenchments east of Inchnip, but were repulsed, though bombardment continued throughout the night. The Japanese advance has also begun against the Russian positions at Tungnan, a mile and a half north of Beuslupetz, where they encountered a heavy Russian fire. Thus it appears the Japanese are becoming aggressive along the whole front.

Latest reports from Port Arthur are by no means encouraging. Sloosel is making a good defense, but Japanese are approaching now by parallels confessedly close to important Russian fortifications. While this form of attack is less spectacular and less costly in men than repeated assaults, it is no less conclusive in ultimate results, demanding sleepless defense, and being almost impossible to frustrate.

REINFORCED. Mukden, Oct. 31.—The Japanese army is rapidly being reinforced and it is expected the new troops will shortly reach from 60,000 to 70,000. This greatly complicates the problem confronting the Russian commander. The whole energies of the Russians must be devoted to holding their positions unless they can bring up large reinforcements speedily. In that case the situation promises to become increasingly difficult. Japanese fortifications already are far too strong, supported as they are by siege guns and rapid fire guns, to be carried by frontal assaults.

AT PORT ARTHUR

Desperate Assaults on Besieged City Being Made by Japanese.

Chefoo, Oct. 31.—The assault on Port Arthur which began in a preliminary way on the 24th developed into a fiercely raging battle yesterday, when, according to hitherto infallible authority, the Japanese using a heavy force against the fortress in their third attempt to secure a commanding position. The result of yesterday's fighting is unknown.

On the 25th, having made every possible preparation, the Japanese opened fire with their artillery along the whole line, incidentally continuing their daily tactics of dropping shells into the harbor. The Russians replied and the bombardment continued furiously until the afternoon of the 26th, when Russian guns on Stagnant and Rihlung mountain became briefly silent. At four that afternoon a regiment of Japanese went out from behind a recently captured hill adjacent to Rihlung mountain and advanced on Russian trenches lying between Rihlung mountain and the railroad, occupying them after an hour's fighting. The Russians stuck to their posts till the Japanese were within a few yards, both sides hurling hand grenades at each other. Japanese infantry are now using mechanical devices which enable them to throw grenades with great accuracy and rapidity. Meanwhile another body of Japanese assaulted the trenches on the slope and Rihlung mountain.

The Japanese brought all their available artillery against the trenches. The Russians exploded mines, but the Japanese claim, without effect. Upon retirement the Russians opened fire from Liati mountain and that night they made a sortie, the Japanese had in the meanwhile brought up machine guns with which the

SPEECH MADE BY PARKER

SPEAKS TO DEMOCRATS IN NEW YORK

Most of Talk Devoted to Criticizing Action of President Roosevelt in Present Campaign.

New York, Oct. 31.—Judge Alton B. Parker was the leading speaker at the Democratic mass meeting at Madison Square Garden to night. The great hall was crowded with people, Parker was escorted to the Garden by a committee of 100 of the most prominent Democrats in the city. Heading the escort were Mayor McClellan and Senator Strauss, the latter the presiding officer of the evening, and among the others were Admiral Schley, Gen. Miles, August Belmont, Carl Schurz, John G. Carlisle and Daniel S. Lamont.

Before Parker was introduced former Secretary of the Interior Hoke Smith made a brief speech. Parker followed, saying in part: "After discussing what he termed 'The Unjust Stewardship of the Republican Party,' he said:

"Our return to the old day fashioned ways cannot, in my opinion, be too precipitate, unless we are prepared to shut our eyes to the consequences that will follow if we proceed further along a path that is full of danger to our future. We need what patriotism, devotion to principle and high moral ideals that have until late always given us a government of law and constitutional restraint and not of caprice of reckless adventure."

He then discussed the collection of campaign funds, admitting that "under right conditions its collection and expenditure are equally legitimate," and adding, "But the spectacle of demanding campaign funds now presented to this country is, when rightly regarded, of a character to shock the moral sense."

He spoke of the creation of the department of commerce and labor; the appointment by the president of his private secretary to the head of that department, and later, through the president's influence, the selection of that private secretary as chairman of the Republican national committee. "His chief duty it has been and still is to collect funds for the purpose of securing the election of the president," said Parker, "and it is now notorious that there has resulted from this organized impertinence whatever may be the precise way in which it is made effective—an overflowing treasury to the committee, of which he is openly and continually made. Although this may be satisfactory to the conscience of the Republican leaders, it must, I firmly believe, be condemned as nothing short of scandalous, not alone by myself or the Democratic party, but by the American people as well. It is said by Mr. Hay that the character of Lincoln furnishes the standard for Roosevelt in his conduct as president. I do not have to pause to hear your thundering roar when I ask would Lincoln have done or permitted this to be done? The whole performance is a shameless exhibition of a willingness to make compromise with decency, in order that sums of money may be gathered together sufficiently vast to justify the insistent boast even now that there is no question as to success which by such a course Republican manager so confidently predict. The performance is entitled only to the credit that it is no sense partakes of hypocrisy. It is as bold as it is improper and indefensible."

Considering results of Democratic success, he thus summarized what followed the election of Cleveland. "He enforced economy, he settled great disputed questions and he administered the government with an honesty and a courage than which nothing in all our history could be more positive or distinctive."

Discussing the allegation that "the Democratic party could not be trusted to deal with the business interests of the country he declared: "That cry wails up from the throats of men whose interest it is to preserve untouched statutes which permit them to collect tribute from the people, or who are interested in combination organized to prevent competition."

He discussed the question of foreign trade at some length. "Our natural resources, the industry, enterprise and ingenuity of our people, our ability to command efficient labor from every quarter of the globe and the strength and flexibility of institutions founded for us on strong and right lines, all combine to fill for supplying an almost infinitely increased demand for our products. But foreign trade cannot be won by a people, who consents to put itself into the leading strings of second child hood. It cannot become the heritage of manufacturers who must be paid a bounty, in order that they may market their own countrymen. It is not to be won by selling at home at prohibitive prices which check consumption and thus lessen production, merely that the products made by the same workmen in the same factories may be sold, with freight paid, thousands of miles away, for a fifth, a quarter or a third less. The world does not furnish a parallel for the skill of workmen. The inventive genius

OF OUR PEOPLE IS UNEQUALLED. IT HAS SO DEVELOPED LABOR SAVING MACHINERY AS TO CHEAPEN THE COST OF PRODUCTION. WHAT WE NEED TO DO IS TO CULTIVATE THE FOREIGN MARKET FOR MANUFACTURED PRODUCTS, THUS ENABLING OUR MILLS TO RUN TO THEIR FULL CAPACITY, THEREBY SECURING STEADY EMPLOYMENT FOR OUR WORKMEN. THAT POLICY WAS SUGGESTED IN THAT LAST AND GREAT SPEECH OF PRESIDENT McKINLEY, WHICH HAS TROUBLED THE 'STAND PATTERS' EVER SINCE. ITS DEVELOPMENT REQUIRES THAT IMPORTED RAW MATERIALS REQUIRED BY OUR MANUFACTURERS SHALL BE OBTAINED ON THE MOST FAVORABLE TERMS, AND IT DEMANDS THAT WE SHALL CULTIVATE AGREEABLE RELATIONS WITH ALL FOREIGN COUNTRIES."

At the conclusion Parker was given a prolonged ovation.

REGENT OF LIPPE-DETA. Hefflin, Oct. 31.—It is reported the federal council has expressed the opinion the present regent of Lippe-Deimold, Prince Leopold, is entitled to the regency, and that other disputes relative to succession should be decided by a court formed under the presidency of some German prince, from members of the imperial supreme court. The Lippe-Deimold government has assented, but competitors have not yet indicated their position. Prince Leopold, regent of Vavaria, is mentioned as president. This alleged action of the federal council is in conflict with Emperor William's telegram stating legal questions concerning the regency were not clear.

DEFEAT OF PARKER

Conceded by New York Herald, Which Supported Him.

New York, Oct. 31.—The New York Herald, which advocated the election of Judge Parker until it seemed to see sure defeat for him, has made a careful canvass of the situation and publishes the results to day.

It finds that Roosevelt has beyond question, 257 electoral votes and Parker 163. This leaves sixty doubtful, including the state of New York.

It finds that the Republicans will elect 210 Republican members of congress and the Democrats 161, with twelve doubtful. The election of Herrick, Democratic candidate for governor of New York, is foreshadowed, although Roosevelt is expected to get 12,000 majority in the state.

It is found that the Republicans will carry Connecticut, Indiana, New Jersey, Rhode Island and Wisconsin, and probably Colorado, Delaware, Montana and West Virginia. The Democrats are credited with Maryland and probably Nevada.

EX-MAYOR AMES MAY GO FREE. Minneapolis, Oct. 31.—In all probability former Mayor Ames will be a free man and never again be tried under indictments returned as a result of "grafting" during his administration. One juror, Charles D. Burns, of Minnetonka Mills, stood by him for sixty-nine hours and refused to allow eleven other men to vote Ames into the penitentiary. It is stated that in all probability the charges will be dismissed, the former mayor now having had three trials.

PARKER'S CONTRAST

Official of Treasury Department Refers to Errors Made.

Washington, Oct. 31.—H. A. Taylor, acting secretary of the treasury, said to day with reference to the speech of Judge Parker to a delegation of farmers last Friday:

"I made a brief statement a few days ago mildly calling attention to several very apparent errors on his part, unintentionally no doubt made out of the fullness of his misinformation in regard to the conduct of certain public affairs. The judge has not joined issue as to any of the facts, neither has he admitted his mistakes, but he seems to have thought some reply necessary and so prepared a speech, mixing up a few of my figures with many others to which I made no reference. Parker made his comparison only with last year. Had he himself looked upon the records he would have found almost without exception deficits in the beginning of each fiscal year, and often in recent years they have been as large and larger than this year. It even appears that during the economical administration of President Cleveland, to which he so admiringly refers, there were heavy deficits. So Judge Parker's comparison only to last year was hardly a fair one."

CORDIALLY RECEIVED. Washington, Oct. 31.—Secretary Hay's note to the powers inviting them to convene another conference at The Hague has been very cordially received by the diplomatic corps. A majority of embassies and legations whose governments have received the invitation have personally informed their foreign offices that the call is entirely independent of the present war and in no sense can be considered as a step in the direction of intervention in that conflict. Although they have not yet received any official expression from their governments, several diplomats of rank to day predicted the note would call forth cordial replies from European countries or at least a majority of them.

OVATION GIVEN FAIRBANKS

IN FIRST DAY OF INDIANA TOUR

Tells People What Has Been Accomplished by Republican Party During Past Seven Years—Other News.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Oct. 31.—A generous ovation was accorded Senator Fairbanks throughout the first day of his campaign tour of Indiana, which closed with a speech here to night. Fairbanks said to night that eight years ago we were told if we would adopt the free coinage of silver manufacturing would increase and that prosperity among the people would be largely augmented. Our Democratic friends said unless we coined free silver freely, there would be no prosperity on the farm. We refused to accept their advice, and we have had prosperity ever since. After referring to the support given McKinley in 1896 by Democrats, Fairbanks said:

"Now, my Democratic friends, what have you to your credit during the past seven years? All that has been most splendid, all that has advanced your welfare and your prosperity, all that has raised your country higher in the esteem of the world, has been accomplished by the Republican party—not by the Democratic party, but in spite of the Democratic party."

GENERAL SICKLES. New York, Oct. 31.—Gen. Daniel Sickles was chairman of a meeting of the Roosevelt and Fairbanks League of Veterans of the Civil War. In his introductory remarks Sickles said:

"I am a Democrat when I get a chance, but they make such platforms that I can't stand for them. I was raised on good old Thomas Jefferson principles, but I can't find anywhere to day the good old Democratic party of my fathers."

WATSON'S OPINION

What the Populist Leader Thinks of Parker's Candidacy.

Stateboro, Ga., Oct. 31.—Hon. Thomas E. Watson, populist candidate for president, said: "I care nothing about Parker, but to get him out of the way, and if the people will stand by me, I will wipe Roosevelt off the earth in 1908. Parker is nothing and not much of that. He is a dog in the manger. He won't get in himself and won't let me in. You had just as well throw away your vote on me as on Parker. I never expect to be president, but I intend to reorganize the populist party that will elect a man some day. My home papers are the only ones that malign me. They say I am a great man and brag on my looks, but damn me in politics."

DEAD ODD FOUND.

LOST ON A FOUL

Britt Loses Head in Fifth Round and Gans Awarded Decision on a Foul.

San Francisco, Oct. 31.—Jimmy Britt lost the lightweight championship to night when he fouled Joe Gans. He had Gans to his knees in the fifth round, and then, losing his head, gave him a vicious punch and Reterne Graney promptly awarded the decision to Gans on a foul. It looked almost from the start as if it were Britt's fight. He actually outboxed Gans and landed blow after blow. In the fourth it was apparent Gans was scared and baring a foul the fight was Britt's to a certainty. While no excuse can be made for Britt losing his head, it certainly seemed that Gans invited the foul. Britt showed marvelous strength and quickness throughout the fight, while Gans seemed to have little force behind his blows.

After the fight Graney said the foul in the fifth was so palpable that he was forced to give Gans the decision. Round —Britt shot his left twice in quick succession to Gans' body, but they were not forcible. Britt hooked left to body again, following with right to head. Both men missed right and left for the head. Britt shot his left to body and missed right for head. Gans missed right for head. Britt was short with left for body and missed left for head as the bell rang.

Round 2—Britt missed left and right for body and they clinched. Britt suddenly sent left to head and body. Gans forced Britt about the ring and they clinched without result. Britt missed left for body and sent straight left to Gans' nose. Gans retreating with a left to body. Britt drove Gans back with left swing to body. Britt scored with left and right to wind. They exchanged blows frequently and the round closed with honors even.

Round 3—They mixed fiercely at close quarters. Gans got in a good right to the body, but Britt recalled with a straight left to the stomach. Britt caught Gans with a terrific right to the jaw, dazing him. He forced Gans to clinch. Britt rushed in, fighting wildly. He bombarded Gans and as the going souped the latter was hanging on to Britt to avoid punishment.

Round 4—Britt waded in freely, rushing Gans to the ropes with a heavy left over the heart. Gans missed right and left swings for the body. Britt sent Gans back with a succession of rights and lefts to the face and left to the body. Jimmy then shot a straight right to the body and followed it with a right swing to the body. At close quarters Britt landed heavy blows. Gans suddenly shot a left to Britt's jaw, but in return Britt put in a body blow that sent Gans to his knees. After that mix-up Britt sent Gans to the floor with a left to the jaw. Gans rose, but was again floored with rights and lefts to the face. There was fearful confusion and the bell was not heard. In this round Britt hit Gans accidentally while Gans was down, but a claim of foul was disallowed. Gans was in distress and the song saved him.

Round 5—They mixed it fiercely. Britt went after Gans like a whirlwind. Britt sent Gans to the floor with a succession of rights and lefts to the jaw. As Gans was attempting to rise Britt met him with a desperate right to the jaw. Eddie Graney quickly disqualified Britt, and awarded the decision to Gans. Excitement was terrific. Britt rushed at Graney like a madman and fought him to the ropes. A squad of police immediately jumped into the ring and it looked as if there would be a general fight. The house gave vent to its disapproval by tremendous shouting and wildly cheered Britt as he went to the center of the ring.

BOTH SIDES CONFIDENT.

Chicago, Oct. 31.—With both employers and employees confident of victory, a strike of 800 hoisting engineers in 240 tinamous coal mines in Illinois went into effect at midnight to night. The engineers declare the strike will be bitter and long and will result in victory for them. The operators declare that their victory is a foregone conclusion and expect a break in the ranks of strikers within a few days. The strike affects about 50,000 workmen, but operators are confident many of their mines will be running within a few days.

DIED IN CITY PRISON.

Springfield News, George Whitmore, a man about 25 years of age, was found dead in the city prison at 5 o'clock this morning. Whitmore is believed to be from Jacksonville. He was taken in by the police last night for being drunk. He was found in the rear of Debb's saloon on South Seventh street and was taken to the headquarters. Officer Rhodes, who was notified of the matter, called the patrol wagon and had the man taken to the police station, where he was assigned to a cell in the city prison. This morning he was called at 5 o'clock, when it was discovered that he had died during the night. When he was brought to the station he was able to walk from the wagon to the prison, although when found he appeared to be in a deep stupor. Little is known of the man. A week ago he was taken into the station in a similar condition and at that time he said that his mother lived in Jacksonville. The body was turned over to the coroner and taken to Bisch's undertaking establishment.

SUCCESSFUL TRIP MADE

GOOD WORK OF BALDWIN'S AIRSHIP

Rises to Height of 2,000 Feet and Covers Distance of Three and a Half Miles—Half Hour Occupied in Making Flight.

St. Louis, Oct. 31.—After circling in every direction at a height of 2,000 feet in sight of thousands of cheering, enthusiastic spectators on the world's fair grounds, A. Roy Knabenshu, of Toledo, Ohio, in command of the Baldwin airship, to day returned to the place from which he had started over the same course that he had come. Covering three miles and a half of the round trip under his own power and demonstrating the claims of the inventor, Captain Thomas B. Baldwin, of San Francisco, that "The California Arrow" is not only dirigible, but that it can make headway against a moderate breeze, Knabenshu started at 3:37 p. m. and returned after his remarkable flight at 4:36. On the return trip the airship sailed slowly over the exact spot from which it had risen and glided about 100 feet further west, where it settled gracefully to the ground.

The first attempt to day was unsuccessful, the airship rising to a height of perhaps 100 feet, dropping to the ground and breaking the rudder. This was quickly patched up and the ascent was again made. The Arrow pointed its prow upward and answering the pull of the propellers, soared lightly above the fumes and rapidly gained an altitude of about 1,000 feet. Knabenshu changed the direction of the craft and passed over the crowd. After proceeding half to three quarters of a mile westward, Knabenshu turned the airship about and again passed over the concourse, at the same time increasing his altitude to about 2,000 feet. Sailing first to the northeast and then to the southeast, occasionally making complete turns, Knabenshu continued in an easterly direction until over the center of the fair grounds, and about a mile and a half from the starting point. Turning sharply the airship crashed an eight mile breeze, staggered a moment and then gaining speed rushed on. The craft responded promptly to the efforts of its navigator and settled within a hundred feet of its starting point. Knabenshu was given an ovation by the great crowd.

Will Not Honor Requisition From Colorado Executive Unless Satisfied Courts Are Uninfluenced by Militia.

Helena, Mont., Oct. 31.—In response to a telegram from Lee Mantle, chairman of the Republican state central committee, who inquired of Governor Toole if he had refused to grant a requisition from Governor Peabody of Colorado for the return of Western Federation miners to Colorado, Toole said he would not honor such a requisition unless satisfied the courts were in full operation in Colorado uninfluenced by military authorities.

SKIPPED BOARD BILL.

The police of this city were notified Saturday night to be on the lookout for a horse and buggy that had been hired at the Greer barn in Virginia and had failed to show up at the time agreed upon. An investigation disclosed the horse in Ogles' livery barn, where it had been left by a man and woman. The Virginia parties were notified and sent over for the horse and vehicle. It developed that the outfit had been hired by a man who gave his name as A. H. Shamm, of Minneapolis, Minn., and who had been stopping at the Mann hotel in Virginia for some time, supposedly being engaged in the picture business. He hired the rig Saturday, agreeing to return it by 4 o'clock. This he failed to do, but instead drove to this city, where he left it at Ogles' barn and failed to call for it. He also left an up-stated board bill of $25 with the Mann hotel. Neither Shamm nor the woman who accompanied him could be located.

NOTED PRELATE DEAD

Cincinnati, Oct. 31.—Most Rev. William E. Elder, archbishop of Cincinnati, in his eighty-sixth year, died to night after suffering four days from a severe case of grippe, complicated with extreme weakness. Present at the bedside were Coadjutor Moeller, Rev. Gallagher, Archbishop Elder's secretary, Dr. Corsey and several Sisters of Mercy. They all were deeply affected, as with dimmed eyes and with prayers on their lips they watched the passing away of the beloved archbishop. Since Saturday heart stimulants were administered and to night life was preserved by other treatment. Archbishop Elder was not only the oldest prelate in years, but also in tenure of office. He had presided over this archdiocese for the last quarter of a century and previously was almost as long bishop of Natchez, Miss.

Dr. Musgrove Taken Ill in Midst of Sermon Sunday Morn—Condition Improved Yesterday

Sunday morning in the climax of a most forceful and impressive sermon Dr. W. H. Musgrove was taken sick and was unable to proceed with his discourse. He had to be taken home, but Monday his condition was much improved, and it is hoped nothing serious will result. The doctor suffered a sunstroke a number of years ago, and whenever extraordinary mental exertion is used it is likely to bring on these spells of sickness.

The Ladies' Foreign Missionary society will meet at Mrs. Waller's on upper avenue next Wednesday afternoon to elect officers.

The Epworth league business meeting will meet, right after prayer meeting next Wednesday night.

The Standard Bearers will meet in the E. L. room on Tuesday night.

The solo rendered by Miss Musgrove last Sunday morning was very impressive.

Rev. J. B. Montgomery, of Elkhart, Ill., will be here next Sunday to assist in the revival.

The revival meetings which were to have begun last Sunday have been postponed one week on account of Dr. Musgrove's sickness.

Rev. J. L. Wilder filled the pulpit very acceptably last Sunday night in the absence of the pastor.

The Republicans are glad that they have such able and worthy men to offer for the state legislature. Messrs. Heinl and Fetzer are gentlemen who will always be an honor personally to any party whatever and the fact that they have been nominated for the lower house of the legislature makes the ticket all the stronger. They will have the fair support of the party in both counties and have a good prospect of election.

Great praise is due the Republican state ticket of Illinois. From the candidate for governor down to the humblest name on the list they are men of fine parts and safely can be trusted with the affairs of our great commonwealth. Mr. Dennen has made himself a terror to evil doers and will be far more so as a governor, so that civil service people, reformers and all men who are seeking to improve things will be glad to give him their ballots and he will have a triumphant election from all appearances.

UNITED EFFORT.

In the coming election united effort is all important. An army can do a great deal if united and all members working harmoniously, but let one regiment mutiny, another go off from the main body, and still others act independently and the whole becomes the easy prey of an organized opposition. It is claimed that some 7,500,000 men voted for Bryan. What can be their feelings when they march up to the polls, if they do so, and cast a ballot for Parker? Bryan says he has nothing to take back or retract; were these voters wrong the last two campaigns or are they wrong now? Yet they will take their medicine like little men in a great many cases, though there are some who will not be so trifled with and the morning of Nov. 9 will reveal a great many things. If the Republicans will hang together and vote and work as they should there will be no fear of the result in county, state or nation. The farther the campaign progresses the better does Roosevelt appear. His enemies are put to shame by the silly charges they have made against him; charges so foolish as to make an intelligent man blush for shame at the thought that a great party can stoop so low. Let the friends of good government stand together and the result will be all right.

NO DOUBT OF IT.

There are times when a man is in doubt as to the proper course to pursue and again there are times when the course seems so plain as day. Such a time awaits the voters of this community Nov. 8.

It will be no trouble to decide that Bert VanWinkle is the best man up for state's attorney, for he is clean, fearless, strictly reliable and progressive.

It will be very easy to see that J. H. DeLong is the right man for superintendent of schools, for he is a man of experience, ability and calm judgment; just the man needed for such an important place. The schools are all important and should have the best men to look after them and such a man is the Republican candidate.

No difficulty will be experienced in concluding that Dr. J. H. Spencer will be the man to select for coroner. He is all right on general principles and in addition he is a man who will stand for the right and best as well as the wisest, and his professional skill will be useful in conducting the affairs of the office.

And as a matter of course any man at all acquainted with the condition of things knows George Detrick is the man for county commissioner. He is cool, deliberate, capable in managing complicated affairs, a thorough business man and withal just the man for the office.

And we all know that the deeds of the county, the circuit court records and all that pertains to the office of circuit clerk must be done by a capable man if we are to have the affairs of that all important office managed safely, and Charles L. Hayden is by far the best man out.

mathematician and in every way capable for the work of the office. Vote the whole Republican ticket and be wise.

A BIG GLASS HOUSE AND A VERY LARGE STONE.

Monday evening the Courier printed an editorial from the Chicago Chronicle published some months ago and criticising Dennen for various things; and then our friend goes on to suggest some inconsistency in the Chronicle's position as a supporter of the Republican candidate for governor. This is exceedingly rich. The article printed in the Chicago paper did offer some remarks derogatory to Mr. Dennen, but they were mild compared with the following editorials in the Courier.

April 21. Judge Parker's friends claim he would make a good president. So would Pyatt's Indian and for the same reason.

April 22. Grover Cleveland's advocacy of Judge Parker makes the issue clear. All the voters of 1896 and 1900 have been for Parker from the first and it only needed the endorsement of Cleveland to make their plans so plain that no Democrat can be deceived as to their purpose. Let the 7,500,000 Democrats who fought under the banner of true Democracy in the last two campaigns put the right foot forward and crush this effort to betray the Democratic party into the hands of the enemy.

April 26. Parker is so near defeat that Colonel Bryan might have been easier with him in his Chicago speech.

April 22. The action of the Democratic state convention of Pennsylvania takes the wind out of the sails of the alleged New York Democracy. The refusal of the Keystone Democrats to instruct for Judge Parker indicates that they do not intend to play second fiddle to David B. Hill, and they will in all probability vote for Congressman Hearst, unless the spirit of Sam J. Randall still animates them and they should select some protectionists for president.

May 9. Judge Parker might well say in imitation of the gentleman who had been nominated for coroner with no chance for success at the polls, but a great many compliments from his friends: "Everything looks well but the prospects."

May 26. It has become very fashionable for the so-called Cleveland "Democrats" and all who are known as "reorganizers" in the Democratic party to sneer and speak slightly of the leaders and principles of the Democratic party in the last two national campaigns, while Benedict Arnold Cleveland delights to refer to them indirectly as afflicted with insanity.

This is rather strong language and to day this "Benedict Arnold Cleveland" and David B. Hill are running the whole thing, and the Courier, with many others, is declaring it all ways did like crow.

SNOW HILL INSTITUTE.
Rev. William J. Edwards, principal of Snow Hill Normal and Industrial Institute, of Snow Hill, Ala., addressed the members of Westminster Presbyterian church Sunday morning on the work of his school and the great good that is being done in the south among the members of his own race. His talk was exceedingly interesting and was heard with profound attention. The work was presented in an unusually comprehensive manner and made a deep and lasting impression upon his auditors.

In the evening Mr. Edwards spoke in the State Street church, along the same lines.

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 31.—The second jury in the trial of former Mayor Ames on charges of bribery today disagreed.

AT THE GRAND.

"Liberty Bells" was the attraction offered at the Grand Monday evening, when an audience of fair proportions was present. The play is constructed along rather broad lines and possesses very little true artistic merit. The music is stirring but not overly tuneful. Skits and pranks of infinite variety are introduced frequently throughout the three acts and the play is by no means lacking in movement. The work of Toby Craig as "Margery Lee" and Bessie Williamson as "Dorothy Grey" was good and the cast was a competent one.

The company does not shine in sartorial splendor, but the stage settings are adequate.

FAMILY GATHERING.

A family dinner was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Cain, south of the city, Sunday. The menu was an elaborate one and was enjoyed by all present. The dinner table was the meeting place of different members of the family who had not seen each other for several years. The good old times were discussed and a very pleasant day was enjoyed by all. Each guest departed with pleasant memories of the occasion and with many thoughts of Mrs. Cain's excellent cooking. The fortunate members of the party were: Mrs. B. Cain and family, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Joyce and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Kingsley and family, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Loneragan and family, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Wolfe and daughters May and Leona, Mr. Louis, Mr. and Mrs. James Corrigan and Mrs. Jesse Henry of East St. and son of New Berlin, John Henry of Leroy, Mo., Miss Mary Maroney of Vandalia, Ill., and Miss Leona Weigand of Mt. ## FIRE ALARMS.

The fire department was called to the corner of Franklin street and Clay avenue Sunday evening about 4 o'clock by an alarm from the signal box, which was recently placed there. There was no fire in sight and it was discovered that the box had been tampered with, probably by some child who wished to see what the result would be. There is a fine attached to the offense of meddling with a signal box, and if the person who tampered with the box Sunday can be found, he will be summarily punished.

Another alarm of fire called the department to the corner of Clay avenue and Chambers street Monday afternoon about 4 o'clock. A shed in the rear of the house on the corner of the two streets had caught from a bonfire and little damage was done. The property is owned by William Muchthausen and occupied by Charles Higgins.

A GOOD RESOLVE

Lawyer Sets Example That Other Smokers Would Do Well to Follow.

One of our most prominent lawyers has made a resolution that he recommends to other smokers, without asking any fee.

For years he has been smoking ten cent and fifteen cent cigars and often without getting one that was satisfactory. When in Armstrong & Armstrong's drug store a month ago, they recommended a 5c cigar, Wadsworth Bros. Chicos, and the result is that he has resolved to buy no other cigar, for he knows that he is getting a better cigar than he has heretofore bought.

Other smokers should follow this example. The Wadsworth Bros. Chicos is made from the best Havana tobacco, not flavored or doctored in any way, and is better than cigars that are usually retailed for double the money. Drop in at Armstrong & Armstrong's to day and get a Chicos.

FELL FROM LADDER.

SIXTIETH BIRTHDAY.

Judge M. T. Layman passed his sixtieth milestone on life's highway Monday. He kept the matter quiet for fear some of his friends might come in and attempt a partial Halloween celebration at the expense of his three score record. ## CARS FOR JAPAN AT LOCAL SHOPS

Fitz-Hugh Luther Company Has Representative Here Buying Trucks for Japan Railway in Manchuria.

The possibilities of war are great and when two nations engage in a death-like struggle as at present is being carried on by Russia and Japan, the rest of the world feels the effect directly and indirectly. Few people are acquainted with the fact that at the C. P. & St. L. shops materials are being secured for cars that are expected to be used on the Japanese railroad now under construction in Manchuria.

The Fitz-Hugh, Luther Railway Equipment company has had a representative at the local shops for several days and already shipments have been made to Chicago, where the trucks and body iron purchased locally are made into flat cars for use in the far east.

The Fitz-Hugh, Luther company had the contract to furnish the Japanese government with 250 cars and this number was delivered, but when the Vladivostok squadron swooped down upon the steamer Arabia seventy of these were found to be a part of her cargo, and as such were declared to be contraband of war. They were ordered thrown overboard and were the only part of the cargo destroyed. As soon as the Japanese government learned of the fate of the cars they at once ordered another shipment and the company is now engaged in filling that order as rapidly as possible.

These cars are all flat cars and the trucks and body iron used in their construction come largely from "bad order" cars that are sent to the various shops of the country for repairs. The Fitz-Hugh, Luther company buys these cars wherever they find them most convenient, and where the supply is sufficient to furnish the required demand.

The cars are all made standard gauge, 4 feet 8 1/2 inches. In Russia the gauge is 5 feet 9 inches, while the Japanese gauge is three feet. The Japanese took the standard gauge of the United States because the supply of such cars was more equal to the pressing demand, while cars of their own gauge were difficult to obtain.

Twenty-three of the seventy cars have already been shipped from the local shops and were expected to arrive in Chicago Monday. The remainder will be shipped as fast as materials can be secured. The old wood work on the "bad order" cars is burned and new material is used in the reconstruction. The entire shipment of seventy cars will be made from Seattle and the consignment will be forwarded to the coast within the next sixty days.

DENEEN DRUM CORPS.

The Deneen drum and bugle corps met at Armory hall Monday evening for the purpose of having their pictures taken, and after this had been accomplished they proceeded to sorely made some of their friends. Among the places visited were the Woman's college, the residence of W. M. Morrissey, the city hall and the Journal office. Their efforts were greatly appreciated and the boys were urgently requested to come again.

At the conclusion of the serenading tour the club repaired to Packard's lunch room, where an oyster supper was enjoyed, due to the generosity of W. M. Morrissey.

Hoyt will appear as the "Melancholy Dane" and many will enjoy his interpretation, his independence of thought and delight in many of his new modes of conveying what he conceives to be the real character of "Hamlet." Originality in these days must surely be welcomed by thoughtful persons, and as Mr. Hoyt's "Hamlet" has been etched out of Shakespeare's play with reverential care and skill, it will commend itself to all real lovers of the drama. The company has been carefully selected and all the special scenery and accessories are carried.

READ THIS.

Jacksonville, Ill., Sept. 25, 1902.—Nearly three years ago, with a second attack of serious illness, I was surprised to learn that I had diabetes. Providentially I was led to procure a bottle of Dr. J. W. Hall's Specific for Kidney and Bladder Troubles, known as A TEXAS WONDER. Less than half of the $1 bottle effected a complete and permanent cure. Consequently I believe it to be a medicine of very great value.

NATURE SPARES

The Stricken Rose From Grief.
What a fortunate provision of nature it is that deprives the rose of its suffering; for how poignant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a canker had at its heart, and that its beauty and fragrance were doomed forever. Nature always spares the suffering; she is a veritable physician, and a pleasant reward, for those who seek her aid. In the yearling by falling hair and grayness have cast a gloom over the lives of thousands of young women, but thanks to the investigations of scientists the true cause of hair destruction is now known to be a germ or parasite that burrows into the hair follicles. Newbrow's Hairrestorer absolutely destroys this germ, thus preventing the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading drug-

Party Record.
In every national campaign for forty years past the Republican party has stood upon its record of things done, of laws enacted, of policies established under which the country has progressed and prospered. The record of the Democratic party made in two administrations was so full of disaster, of commercial shipwreck, of industrial paralysis and business failures that its chief business in recent years has been to get as far away from its record as possible.

"Tis the slogan!"
As to the president's letter of acceptance, the Republican party and the thinking men of the country—those who have read and can understand—have but one comment:
"Dinna ye hear it? 'Tis the slogan!"

MALARIA
IN THE SYSTEM

Holly Springs, Miss., March 24, 1903.
While building railroads in Tennessee some twelve years ago a number of hands contracted fever and various forms of blood and skin diseases. I carried S. S. S. in my commissary and gave it to my men with most gratifying results. I can recommend S. S. S. as the finest preparation for Malaria, chills and fever, as well as all blood and skin diseases. W. I. McGowan.

I suffered greatly from Boils, which would break out on different parts of my body. I saw S. S. S. advertised and after using about three bottles, was cured, and for the last three years have had no trouble whatever. A. W. ZEDER.
217 Read St., Evansville, Ind.

I began using your S. S. S. probably ten years ago for Malaria and blood troubles, and it proved so good that I have continued ever since using it as a family remedy. It is a pleasure for me to recommend S. S. S. for the benefit of others who are needing a first rate blood purifier, tonic and cure for Malaria.

symptoms of this miserable disease.

Prominent Ministers in Chicago and the Country Issue Statement to Voters Answering Charges of Democrats.

The Lutheran ministers of the state, judging from many of their expressed opinions, strongly disapprove of the unjust attack which has been made by certain Democrats on Charles S. Deneen, and which accuses him of a hostile attitude toward the Lutheran private schools. The unfairness and groundlessness of the charge is now thoroughly understood by every intelligent person in Illinois, including the German voters, most of whom are readers of newspapers and are well informed.

But in order that the facts about the Edwards school law matter may be put beyond all question, and that the attitude of the Lutheran clergy and membership toward Mr. Deneen may be clearly understood, a number of Lutheran clergymen have united in a statement which they send out to the public over their own names. It is more particularly addressed to German voters, but it should be carefully read by every one. The clergymen signing it are representative men in their denominations, six of them living in Chicago and the others residing in the state. The statement is as follows:

Statement to Voters.

"To the German voters of Illinois—
"In its desire to create a sentiment against Charles S. Deneen, the Republican candidate for governor, the Democratic party is reviving a fair tale from the past century. Now, on the eve of the campaign, and after all other Democratic attempts to gain the German vote have been without success they raise with the despair of a drowning man who grasps a straw the old issue of the Edwards school law, a law which Republicans as well as Democrats buried many years ago and which is now slumbering peacefully in its grave. Following the old advice of a chronic gossip: 'Talk as bad as you can about your neighbors and somebody will sure believe you,' the Democratic party, with the impudence and meanness of a street urchin, is trying to disturb the German voters with the cry: Deneen was a friend of the Edwards school law, the law which was supposed to exterminate your church schools."

"But the whole world knows that this is not so. Charles S. Deneen, as well as his competitor for the office of governor, voted for the repeal of this tyrannical law, and the name of Chas.
S. Deneen can be found on the roll of honor of the members of the legislature who voted for the final repeal of the obnoxious law, a fact that is registered on page 165 on the house journal of the 1st of February, 1893.
This bill had been drawn up by the Democratic incumbent of the governor's office, John P. Altgeld, and was introduced by his office."

Showed Great Sagacity.

"But Charles S. Deneen did even more than that. When on the previous day a member of the legislature, D. H.
Paddock from Kankakee, introduced an amendment which was practically the compulsory education bill which is now in force, Charles S. Deneen voted in favor of it, as with great sagacity he anticipated the importance of such a law. The Democrats, however, in their mad desire to repeal the Edwards school law voted against the amendment, and it was tabled. Five years later, on the 11th of June, 1897, under a Republican governor and a Republican legislature, a compulsory education law was passed; the Democrats even seeing its necessity and even the most vicious opponents of the Edwards school law agreeing on its usefulness.
The prediction of Charles S. Deneen which had been rejected differed from the law as it now stands only as to the length of the school year and the degree of penalty."

"This proves that the German voters, so far as the Edwards school law is concerned, are under obligation to the Republican candidate for governor, Charles S. Deneen; and there is no doubt that by their vote on the 8th of November they will prove their appreciation."

Should Rebuke Assaults.

"If the Democratic leaders have to resort to such contemptible means in the hope thereby to elect their candidate they will undoubtedly lose the support of all honest and upright American citizens of German descent."

"Charles S. Deneen is a man of great strength of character, a splendid public servant, and above all, a true friend of the American citizens of German descent, a man who respects their habits and customs; and the German voter will surely do his part at the polls on the 8th day of November to assist in his election for governor of our state.

ANENT DENEEN

A Second Roosevelt.
The Pontiac Sentinel styles Mr. Deneen a second Roosevelt and a leader equal to Logan and Oglesby. The Sentinel says:

"No political speech at Pontiac in twenty-five years pleased the people better than that of Hon. Charles S.
Deneen at the Chautauque Auditorium last Saturday evening. Few men are able to put as much food for thought in the same space as Deneen.
In this regard he is a second Roosevelt.
And withal his mind runs in the same uplifting channels as Roosevelt's. He resents the dangers to the civic life of the republic and punishes them to a frazzle. A supreme feature of his speech was the incidental saying he gave to corrupt politics and corrupt politicians. As a leader, bosses will breathe hard in his atmosphere."

"The striking thing about Mr. Deneen in speech is his wonderful combinations of humor and seriousness, wit and sarcasm, logic and epigram. Since Logan and Oglesby the Republican party has been without definite leadership in this state. Now it has that leadership in the person of Charles S.
Deneen, the brilliant Cook county prosecutor, who won his spurs in the most difficult post in the civil administration of the state. As the product of the fiery ordeal of the contentions between the good and the bad in a great city and the 'long convention,' he more than meets the high hopes and expectations of the Republicans of the state of Illinois, Logan and Oglesby, and is already easily the leader of the party they led to such proud results."

Brightest of His Age.

Attorney Frank Roby, of Decatur, says "The Decatur Herald, knows Mr.
Deneen quite well. He was associated with Deneen in a political way while living in Chicago. Mr. Roby speaks highly of him as a politician and a worker. In this regard he said:
"Mr. Deneen is without doubt I think the brightest man of his age that I have ever met. He is probably not over 45 years old, but I do not know his exact age. He is one of those earnest and energetic workers who can keep on going in an unflinching way.
As a speaker he is good. He is one of the earnest kind who speaks with logic and force and is a ready talker."

"In Chicago Mr. Deneen was the hardest fighter in the primaries of the city ever knew. He has a good head and this fact is shown both in his speeches and his political work. Every one knows that as state's attorney in Chicago Mr. Deneen was a fearless official."

The Man Behind the Speech.

"The value of Mr. Deneen's speech," says The Chicago News, in commenting on his address in that city,
"was largely in the man behind it—a man, who practices what he preaches.
They were not mere idle words that he uttered, but great truths concerning the problems of government which everybody needs to know, and they are backed by a record of efficient public service on the part of the speaker which is a full guaranty of the sincerity with which they were spoken."

"It is some years since the people of this imperial commonwealth have had opportunity to vote for such a splendid man as Mr. Deneen for governor—a man of high personal character, of honorable purposes, a tireless worker whose efforts are always well directed, and, best of all, a man with a conscience."

Deneen at Fish Center.

"There is a growing conviction in Illinois," says The Mattson Journal, "that Charles S. Deneen is accountable for most of the popular education in the state." "Another county," it says, "in which he once taught school was found today. From all indications the Republican candidate for governor must have been the greatest exponent of the birch rod and the 'three Rs' between Posey county, Ind., and Burlington, Ia."
"Mr. Deneen seems to have taught school from Cairo on the south to Galena on the north. Whenever you find a little red school house, six miles from a postoffice or a grocery store, it is a safe bet that Charles S. Deneen once taught school there, or if he did not they will tell you he did, so it's all the same."

Deneen at Fish Center.

Havana, the county seat of Mason county, is known as "Fish Center." It is where most of the fish stories come from. It is also an intensely Democratic town. Mason county and Texas are said to be the two great Democratic states of the country. To be a Republican in either place is to be alone-some. Charles S. Deneen spoke at Havana the other day.

"Say something nice about fishing," said the local Republicans to Mr. Deneen as soon as he got off the train.
He did. He said the state ought to develop the fishing industry. Tremendous applause. Interest in the Philippines might not be terrific, but the trammel net is a live issue."

Mrs. Bussey Discountenances the Attempt to Encourage Disloyalty to One of Her Party's Nominees.

A scheme has been concocted—by whom it is not altogether clear—to so manipulate the vote on university trustees next month that the three Republican candidates for that office shall not all be elected. The scheme purports to be in the interest of the Democratic woman candidate for trustee, with the view, as alleged, to secure the election of two women trustees instead of one. The plan is said to have originated with the Woman Suffrage association, and a large number of circulars has been sent out in its advocacy. But the fact that some of the circulars bear the letter-head of the Democratic state central committee would seem to indicate that Democratic politicians have had something to do with the contemplated juggling of votes.

Practically, the plan is to induce as many Republican women voters as possible to vote for the Democratic woman nominee in the supposed interest of the cause of their sex. To this end the women's clubs of the state are appealed to. The effect of this would be that one of the Republican nominees for trustee would be defeated.
It is thus seen to be a bid for party disloyalty.

Women Must Understand.

Every Republican woman who votes for a Democratic nominee does so at the expense of a Republican candidate. This she should distinctly understand before she casts her vote. And let her consider also whether this disloyalty to her party would really advance the cause of woman suffrage.
If women cannot be trusted to be true to their party nominees how can they consistently expect their party to be true to women? If they cannot use in a fair and honorable way the political privileges they already have how can they legitimately expect an increased participation in political affairs?

So long as political parties are deemed necessary to the accomplishment of certain desired ends a reasonable loyal adherence to the will of these parties, as expressed by their conventions, will be expected. This is a matter of principle and not an arbitrary requirement for political parties are based on the theory that those who have like political convictions unite in a party in order to give those convictions practical effect. That Democratic women voters are expected to reciprocate, and to vote for the Republican woman nominee does not alter the equity of the case.

Democratic Scheme Apparent.

The Democratic part of the scheme comes in in the hoped-for defeat of one of the Republican nominees.
Mrs. Mary Bussey, the Republican woman nominee for trustee, very properly discountenances the attempt to lead Republican women to be disloyal to either of the other two Republican nominees for trustee. "I hope," she says, "that I am too honest personally, too loyal to the Republican party and too well acquainted with Republican politics over to think of giving my endorsement to the proposition made in the circulars." Republican women, when their attention is called to the disloyal and unfair nature of the scheme, will doubtless take the same view of the matter as is taken by Mrs. Bussey.

Leaves Hearers to Decide.

"Mr. Deneen stands with his left hand in one of his trousers pockets and with his right hand he gesticulates in a way that suggests driving home points," says the Chicago News. "The people like the man and his way of talking to them. They will sit long and hear him speak. He reasons and leaves it to his hearers to decide, and of course they agree with him, so irresistible is the frank manner in which he arrays his facts for judgment."

One of the best pieces of work of the Republican party—fortunately for the party in power—has been its building up of the rural delivery system.
It has accomplished a tremendous work in the extension of the work of the postoffice department.

People who say combinations of capital are due to the tariff should explain why free trade Britain is ridden with trusts. British manufacturers generally have been for years organizing combinations, and they have no tariff to protect them.

Prosperous times are more truly reflected in the increased number earning wages than in any statistics of average wages, for the obvious reason that the ranks of labor are recruited from the bottom.

Mr. Stringer is rapidly learning the fact that one way to acquire experience is to butt up against it.

Miss Whittaker, a prominent club woman of Savannah, Ga., tells how she was entirely cured of ovarian troubles by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I heartily recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a Uterine Tonic and Regulator. I suffered for four years with irregularities and Uterine troubles. No one but those who have experienced this dreadful agony can form any idea of the physical and mental misery those endure who are thus afflicted. Your Vegetable Compound cured me within three months. I was fully restored to health and strength, and now my periods are regular and painless. What a blessing it is to be able to obtain such a remedy when so many doctors fail to help you.
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is better than any doctor or medicine I ever had. Very truly yours, Miss MARY WHITTAKER, 604 39th St., W. Savannah, Ga."

No physician in the world has had such a training or such an amount of information at hand to assist in the treatment of all kinds of female ills as Mrs. Pinkham. In her office at Lynn, Mass., she is able to do more for the ailing women of America than the family physician. Any woman, therefore, is responsible for her own trouble who will not take the pains to write to Mrs. Pinkham for advice. Her address is Lynn, Mass., and her advice is free.

A letter from another woman showing what was accomplished in her case by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: I am so grateful to you for the help Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has given me that I deem it but a small return to write you an expression of my experience.
"Many years suffering with weakness, inflammation, and a broken down system, made me more anxious to die than live, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound soon restored my lost strength.
Taking the medicine only two weeks produced a radical change, and two months restored me to perfect health. I am now a changed woman, and my friends wonder at the change, it is so marvellous. Sincerely yours, Miss MATTIE HENRY, 439 Green St., Danville, Va."

The testimonials which we are constantly publishing from grateful women prove beyond a doubt the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to conquer female diseases.

Misses Pearl Taylor, Helen Reed and Estella Potter were hostesses at a handkerchief shower given Saturday in the club room at Central hospital in honor of Miss Hannah Haigh, who recently severed her connection with that institution. The club room was tastefully decorated with chrysanthemums and autumn leaves, the shower effect being carried out in a great canopy of leaves suspended above the punch bowl.

The evening was made merry with games and music. Miss Idell Rufus presiding at the piano. Miss Ada Morgan, served at the punch bowl. Miss Georgia Dodson, John Honeyfinger, H. E. Reid and B. D. Lair also assisted in entertaining. After the dainty refreshments had been served, Miss Potter, with a few appropriate remarks, presented the "shower" to Miss Haigh, who responded with a feeling acknowledgment of the pleasant associations with the employees of the institution. Miss Haigh has held a responsible position at the hospital, and won the good will of the employees in many ways.

HALLOWE'EN CELEBRATIONS

Parties and Fireside Revelries Galore—Ghosts Walk Streets After Indoor Merriment.

Hallowe'en, the name given to the eve of the festival of All Saints, was celebrated according to custom Monday evening, with the usual indoor and outdoor pranks and revelries. The number of merry makers seen on the streets was larger than in many years, especially was this true of "spooky" individuals, who were out in large force.

Less property damage was reported than usual and while the coming of dawn may reveal facts hitherto unknown the police early this morning reported a quiet night and few arrests. In the first ward a number of crossings were torn up and several wagons upset. The steps were torn from several porches in various parts of the city and on West Lafayette avenue the paving outfit of John Cherry was used to blockade the sidewalk in several instances.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Simpson on North Church street, Misses Martha Simpson and Fay Rodgers gave a party to a number of their young lady friends, and a right merry time was enjoyed by the guests. All came masked and great was the fun over the disguises. It was a sheet and pillow case affair and it made one think of the remark of the guard in Hamlet:

"The sheeted dead Did squeak and gibber in the streets of Rome."

After this part of the fun had been enjoyed and the wits of the guests exhausted in guessing, the masks were removed and ghost stories and various pastimes followed, until refreshments were announced. Then apples, popcorn, candy pulled by the guests and other goodies were devoured by the possessors of excellent appetites. Fun was fast and furious until the hour for departure, which came all too soon for the young people having such a good time. Those present were: Martha Simpson, Fay Rodgers, Frances English, Jessie Allen, Bessie Shrewsbury, Ruth Brady, Ruth Wyckoff, Oleta Brown, Goldie Cohen and Anna Brouer.

The members of the D. I. C. club were entertained by Miss Jeanette Duncan at her home on West Lafayette avenue last evening. A Hallowe'en party was the feature of the evening. The usual games were played and delicious refreshments were served. The guests were as follows: Misses Lula Carlyle, Susie Platt, Mamie McBride, Blanche and Lillian Vasconcellos, Alice Devlin, Jeanette and Gertrude Duncan, Anna Livingston, Mae Boylan and Stella Cully.

Perhaps the most surprised couple in the city last evening was Mr. and Mrs. Charles Glossup, living on South East street. About thirty of their friends and neighbors swooped down upon them in sheets and pillow cases and completely took charge of the house. Mr. Glossup was attending a meeting of the board of stewards at Centenary church, while Mrs. Glossup was taken care of by Mrs. Dave Kennedy until the others appeared. Imagine her surprise when through her front door filed a long line of ghostly figures, some long, some short, some slender and some broad, but all alike silent and awesome. It was a long time before she found out who they were and then the good time began. No one knows better how to handle a crowd of young people than Mrs. Glossup and she spared no effort on this occasion. The evening was spent in games of various kinds until a late hour, when the crowd dispersed, well pleased with their Hallowe'en party. Mrs. Randle served the refreshments, consisting of menagerie animals and water. T. H. Buckthorpe got first prize for eating fourteen elephants and one Missouri mule.

A masquerade Hallowe'en party was given by Miss Millicent Rowe at her residence on West State street Monday evening. About twenty-four of her young friends were present and enjoyed a pleasant evening. The house was beautifully decorated with pumpkins and vines. The usual games were played and delicious refreshments were served, after which all repaired to their homes with many good wishes toward their hosts.

A Hallowe'en party was given for the students of the Woman's college last evening by Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Barker. The party was of the Mother Goose nature and the guests were costumed to represent the characters of the book. The fortune teller was the most amusing part of the program, which was enacted in the chapel. The rooms were beautifully decorated with lanterns and the other usual Hallowe'en adornments.

The party was in charge of Miss Plank, the class officer. The regular Hallowe'en games were played and delicious refreshments were served in Miss Plank's room. The evening was a most enjoyable one.

member with pleasant recollections of the occasion.

The Junior league of Centenary church gave a very delightful Hallowe'en social. Music was furnished by Misses Mabel Swearingen, Blanche Watson and Agnes James, and Misses Helen Campbell and Tanie Roberts gave a number of recitations. Games and other amusements in keeping with the spirit of the evening were enjoyed.

Mrs. L. S. Black and Mrs. L. Goheen entertained a company of thirteen friends last evening at a "sheet and pillow" party. The fatal number had no dampening effect on the ardor of the party, and after enjoying an evening's sport, partook of refreshments at Vickery & Merrigan's.

The freshman class of Illinois college was entertained last evening at a Hallowe'en party by their class officer, Professor Reel, at his home on Westminster street. The evening was spent in Hallowe'en games and amusements and the function proved to be a delightful one in every particular.

Miss Maude McPhail entertained about thirty young people at her home on Brooklyn avenue last evening. The guests were masked and all enjoyed a jolly evening. At a late hour refreshments were served.

The Rena Hive, No. 245, L. O. T. M., enjoyed a Hallowe'en social at the home of Miss Grace Marks last evening. Music and games were enjoyed and the pleasant hours of the evening passed all too soon. At a late hour refreshments were served.

Miss Riley entertained the teachers of the First ward school at her home on South Diamond street last evening. The time was most pleasantly spent with the usual Hallowe'en games and all present enjoyed a pleasant evening.

The junior class of the high school met at Miss Ethel Funk's residence on South Main street last evening and enjoyed a Hallowe'en party. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion with jack-o'-lantern pumpkins. The usual games were played and while the class were all enjoying a good time the dreaded seniors broke in upon the scene with evil intentions toward the refreshments. But the juniors, who were right strong, proved to be too much for them and the battle was a decided victory for the former class. After the refreshments were served a flash light photograph was taken of the class in two sections.

Miss Nena Goes entertained a number of friends Monday evening at a Hallowe'en party and kitchen rush in honor of Miss Tillie Allen, who is to be married soon. Games in keeping with the spirit of the evening were played and delightful refreshments were served. Miss Allen was presented with a great variety of beautiful and useful articles and the best wishes of all were extended in a hearty manner.

Those who participated in the pleasant occasion were: Misses Tillie Allen, Lena Brune, Anna Brune, Nell White, Florence Smith, Mamo White, Nettie Smith, Mabel Omellas, Bertha Proctor, Anna Pires and Elizabeth Strausser.

TO NIGHT.

The people of this vicinity are going to have a rare opportunity to night and this afternoon when the famous government Indian band will give a concert at the Grand opera house. This is the finest Indian band in existence. It was organized by the United States government expressly for the Louisiana Purchase exposition, where thousands have enjoyed its music. The band consists of thirty Indians, all artists in their respective lines, from almost every prominent tribe in the United States. The band will play under the direction of Mr. Lem Wiley, a life long student of music, and who has had many years of experience as a leader of bands. Not the least pleasing feature of the concert will be the saxophone quartet. The skill of these Indians in handling their instruments is remarkable. An Indian band will certainly be a novelty in this part of the state. It has not been generally known that the Indian is a natural musician and the

Hallowe'en was appropriately celebrated by the Ladies' Aid society of the Catholic church by an "Olde Tyne" social at Liberty hall Monday evening. #### HAD TO HIDE IT

A mother wrote us recently that she had to keep Scott's Emulsion under lock and key—her children used to drink it whenever her back was turned. Strange that children should like something that is so good for them. It's usually the other way. Scott's Emulsion makes children comfortable, makes them fat and rosy-cheeked. Perhaps that's why they like it so much—they know it makes them feel good.
